month	in shed	veggie patch	high tunnel	big patch	raised beds by big patch	raised bed by shed	gutter planters
January	test lights and prep sprouting racks sort out and prep sprouting trays	add more compost	add more compost weed under low tunnel	rabbit fence?	determine irrigation design.
February	start all brassicas (cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, brussels sprouts)	till in compost	till in compost	rabbit fence?	plant 1 bed in peas with trellis & fence	finish harvesting any carrots	prep 1st planter start green onions
March	start celery, tomatoes, chard, kale (anything left from last month, move to outdoor work tables or high tunnel.)	Move trellises plant peas	1. lay down irrigation lines 2. plant early greens 3. remove low tunnel 4. erect antivarmint fencing	1. lay down irrigation lines 2. set up bean trellises 3. transplant brassicas	plant 2 beds in peas with trellis & fence	add compost	prep 2nd planter start greens
April	start squash, cucumbers, tomatillos (anything left from last month, move to outdoor work tables or high tunnel.)	plant potatoes	plant soya beans	plant corn	plant 2 beds in lettuce, one in carrots	hand-turn
May	1. check and stow starting lights 2. move any remaining starts to outdoors work tables or high tunnel 3. prepare ripening shelves	transplant celery, tomatoes, squash, cucumbers	fill in chard / kale row	plant pole beans	transplant tomatillos	plant bush beans

month	in shed	veggie patch	high tunnel	big patch	raised beds by	raised bed	gutter planters
					big patch	by shed
DEPENDANT	As needed, construct	1. When garlic is	as greens finish	when all crops	when first crops	when beans	keep replanting
EVENTS	new irrigation manifolds.	harvested,	harvesting, plant	are in, replant	are done, replant	are done.	same crops with replant row in	winter root crops.	entire area in	beds in greens,	Mulch bed	fresh dirt; see how greens.		cover crop	tomatillos,	for winter.	late in the season
		2. when tomatoes			carrots, bush		we can push this.
		and celery are			beans.
		done, replant
		rows in cover
		crop.
		3. all other rows:
		for any other crop
		done before mid-
		August, plant
		winter crop or greens.
		4. When crops
		are done for real,
		plant in cover
		crop or mulch.
I		1 2 2 2 2
NEW	metal fence posts
MATERIALS	metal fencing
	_
NEEDED	plastic fencing						